EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Michael Schmidt on 30 November 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 2, line 23, insert –upstream of the rotary thermal storage– after “combustion gas flowing in the high temperature fluid passage”.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-30 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the instant application is deemed to be a nonobvious improvement over the invention of Barber (U.S.P. 4,025,612). The improvements comprise a gas compressor located in the low temperature fluid passage on a downstream side of the heat exchange section, the communicating passage, and the high temperature fluid passage on an upstream side of the heat exchange section; a pressurizing means for increasing the pressure of the combustion gas in the high temperature passage upstream of the rotary thermal storage so that the pressure in the high temperature fluid passage becomes higher than that in the low temperature fluid passage; a pressure detecting means for the low temperature fluid passage in the vicinity of the rotary thermal storage, a second pressure detecting means for the high temperature fluid passage in a vicinity of the rotary thermal storage, and control means for opening a pressure control valve according to pressures detected by the two detecting means; an off gas supply path through which unreacted hydrogen not sufficiently consumed by the hydrogen consumption device is supplied to the combustion gas supply section; igniting means provided in the combustion gas supply for igniting fuel to produce combustion gas; an oxidation catalyst affixed to the surface of the rotary thermal storage.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kevin L. McHenry whose telephone number is (571) 272-1181. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F.
